

bedside cabinet

EMU Plus

EMU Plus bedside cabinet is designed for storing patient's belongings and can be used in all hospital wards. Thanks to the applied design of double-sided drawers and double doors, the bedside cabinet is very versatile and can be placed from both sides of the bed. Construction of the bedside cabinet is made of zinc plated steel, and steel sections covered by powder Varnish with antibacterial additives. Cabinets doors and drawer frontal, cabinet top and overbed table made of 6 mm HPL resistant to UV, abrasion, cleaning, disinfection. The drawer on sliding bearing rails with stopper prevention from drawer falling out. The bedside cabinet is equipped with four non-staining twin castors 50 mm with rubber treads and 2 castors with brakes. Doors of the bedside cabinet are equipped with self-closing hinges. Drawer and doors with ergonomic handles.

EMU PLUS is equipped with overbed table that can be swing into a side niche when is not in use. The overbed table has infinitely variable height adjustment realized by gas spring with interlocking by button and inclination adjustment to 30° or to 60°. Overbed table with elevated edges by 15mm from 2 sides.

Cabinet is resistant to cleaning and disinfection by chemical agents- all metal surfaces are zinc plated and coated by powder varnish, cabinet top, overbed table, doors and drawer frontal are made of cleaning and disinfection resistant HPL boards.

Standard accessories:

- two-section plastic drawers insert which can be removed for cleaning and disinfection.
- shelf inside the compartment
- on side – hanger for towel

TECHNICAL DATA:

Overall width x depth (table top dimensions): 515 x 405 mm

Width x depth of overbed table (EMU PLUS): 570 x 340 mm

Height adjustment of overbed table (EMU PLUS):

740 x 1040 mm

Height: 840 mm

Castors diameter: 50 mm

Main body colour RAL 7035

Available colours of fronts

Available colours of HPL tables

