Field inspection

On March 11-15, 2024, a random field inspection was carried out based on the dendrological inventory referred to above, in terms of compliance of the description of tree parameters and economic indications with the actual situation.

The field inspection revealed a few errors in the measurements and descriptions of the condition of the trees, which did not constitute grounds for rejecting the works.

Electronic data

The data provided in electronic formats, including spatial data, are complete, consistent with the requirements specified in the OPZ, and include all identified trees. Also tables in xlsx format are correct.

Prints

Printouts correct, no comments.
