

Ω Connector

Total reconstruction - fixed length

- A micro-ball-joint is created together with KURZ total prosthesis
- Any movement at the level of the TM due to hydrostatic pressure or post-op healing process is “absorbed” by the ball-joint
- Increases the likelihood of keeping the total prosthesis positioned on the stapes footplate
- Total prosthesis may be angled to fit the anatomy

