

- b) All accredited media allowed to enter the locker rooms must follow the guidelines below:
- All media, except photographers, will only enter the locker room for interviews.
 - All media, except photographers and rights holders that are not interviewing any player, will exit the locker room. The IFPC will be allowed to shoot footage inside the locker rooms without the obligation to interview players or head coaches.
 - All footage shot inside the locker room must be starting from the waist upwards. No footage shot below the waist will be allowed.
 - The first five minutes after the locker room has been opened are reserved for the rights holders. Once these five minutes have expired, the rest of the media accredited with access to the locker room will be allowed to enter.
- c) Following the game, the head coach or media director will announce to the accredited media that their team locker room is open. The team manager, media director or other official from each club will tell the players when the media are about to enter the locker room, and also if any women are among the accredited media. Then the locker room must be opened to properly accredited media, with local security thoroughly briefed to conform to the regulation and ensure accreditation enforcement.
- d) The locker room will remain open to the accredited media for a minimum of 15 minutes, and the players will have to attend to them during this entire period at least.
- e) If space allows, all accredited media – and only accredited media – will be allowed to enter both locker rooms.
- f) Due to, and only to, potential space problems, each club may decide before the season on a minimum number of accredited media – never less than 15 per locker room – to be given special locker room accreditations for each game. If the number does not meet the demand (16 or more accredited media want to enter locker rooms), the access will be awarded on a rotating game-to-game basis. Those not in the rotation for the locker room of the home team will be given accreditation to enter the locker room of the visiting team. Locker room accreditations will be distributed equally to all media types, with at least the IFPC, the visiting team rights holders, one major daily newspaper, and one radio station allowed in the
