

lights. Whether a foul that is called is committed on or by a player in the act of shooting, the ball was released prior to the illumination of the red LED lights, the foul will be administered.

The referees will be permitted to utilise instant replay to determine whether (and how much) time should be put on the game clock but only when it is confirmed through replay that:

- a) The shooter committed an out-of-bounds violation.
- b) A shot clock violation occurred.
- c) An eight-second back court violation occurred.
- d) A foul was called prior to the illumination of the red LED lights (signalling the end of playing time).

5.20.2.2. A foul called with no time remaining on the game clock (00:00) at the end of any quarter or any overtime. The referees will review the footage to determine the following issue only: whether the foul that was called occurred prior to the illumination of the red LED lights (signalling the end of playing time).

The referees will be permitted to utilise instant replay to determine whether (and how much) time should be put on the game clock but only when it is confirmed through replay that a foul was called prior to the illumination of the red LED lights (signalling the end of playing time).

5.20.2.3. Fourth or Extra Periods 02:00 or Less Game Clock

Instant replay can be referred to in the following situations:

1. The referees are unsure as to who touched the ball last on an out-of-bounds violation or whether it was touched simultaneously by two players. The referees will review the footage to determine the following issue only: identify if the player or ball was actually out-of-bounds, and if so identify the player who touched the ball last.

2. The referees are unsure as to whether a goaltending/basket interference violation occurred. The referees will review the footage to determine the following issue only: whether the violation occurred, always after a goaltending or basket interference call has previously been made by one of the referees.
